CAR GUTTED: Torrance firemen are still investigating a blaze which completely gutted a vehicle parked near Doris way and Vander rd. last Friday. Walter F. Converse, of Torrance, and owner of the car explained to police that he loaned the car to a prospective buyer to drive around the block. It was found later completely gutted by fire.

HUMAN TORCH: Mike Maxxenti, 7, is recovering this week at his home, 812 Cota st., after receiving severe burns of the left leg when he played a game of human torch with two playmates Saturday. One of his friends poured lighter fluid on his trouser leg and the other touched a match to it. The object of the game was to "wipe out" the flames with bare hands before any damage was done. The boys put out the blaze, but Mike was treated at the Torrance Medical center for first, second, and third degree burns.

PRELIMINARY HEARING: In South Bay Municipal court Wednesday, Albert Disafurino, arrested for a series of armed robberies here, was held to answer in Los Angeles Superior court May 14. George Barboza, who has been held for a series of house burglaries, will be arraigned May 13 at Long Beach Superior court. Bail has been set at $5000 for both.

Sister Kenny Fund Raising Drive Begins

The Los Angeles Department of Social Service has designated the month of May as the annual fund raising campaign of the Sister Elizabeth Kenny foundation in Southern California. Campaign goal for 1957 is $450,000.

"Double Need This Year" is the 1957 slogan which was arrived at because of the double service offered and the costs have been much higher because of the new program.

The program includes aid to all victims of all neuromuscular disease, not just poliomyelitis, as was the policy prior to January, 1956.
